Matamoras Mexico April 2<sup>d</sup> 1864

We the undersigned have subscribed the sums opposite our names for the purpose of purchasing arms and introducing them into the Confederate States by running the blockade somewhere on the Coast of Texas and selling the arms to the Confederate States authorities under a Contract made by Dr. Boulds Baker with the Cotton Bureau (Lt. Col. Hutchins Chy) of the Transmissippi Department - The Shares are one thousand dollars each and Noah Cox is hereby authorized by us to act as the agent of this Joint Stock Company with powers to extend the same by admitting other subscribers provided always that no less than one share shall be subscribed by any person or firm and that the said share shall be paid upon subscription to the said Noah Cox - And it is further stipulated that the said Noah Cox shall proceed to Havana by the earliest conveyance and buy a vessel or vessels and arms and shall load the said vessel or vessels -

If he buys but one he will then load the same and will himself go aboard of her as supercargo and run the blockade if possible at some point on the Coast of Texas - If there are funds enough to buy more than one vessel and load them then the said Noah Cox will embark on the last vessel cleared - And we hereby appoint the said Noah Cox as the sole director of the said Company hereby obligating ourselves to ratify all his acts - The said Director and stockholder Noah Cox promises to use due diligence in the business of the Company and that he will advise with any of the stock holders when it is possible so to do -

Upon the safe arrival of the vessel or vessels in port as much of the Cotton received of the Confederate Government as the vessel or vessels can load will be shipped by them to the most accessible port and the remainder will be transported overland to Mexico and destined of at Matamoras or shipped to some port in Europe as a majority of stockholders may direct

In the event of the death or Captivity of Noah Cox we do appoint Dr Boulds Baker to continue the transactions of the Joint Stock Company and to close the same according to the foregoing instructions
